

OUR BIOMES

Name: _____ Class: _____

Did you know? A biome is a region of the world with a similar climate, animals, and plants. There are 5 main biomes in the world.

Missing Words

Instructions: Choose from the words below and fill in the blank spaces

cactus, trees, grass, cold, water

Forests

_____ are the main plant type in forests. Many different animals that use trees live in forests.

Deserts

Deserts are very dry. The main type of plant in deserts are

_____. Animals and plants need to save water.

Aquatic

Aquatic environments consist of _____ . They can be salt water or fresh water.

Tundra

The tundra has very _____ weather all year. Animals and plants found here are adapted to the harsh weather.

Grasslands

The main plant type in grasslands is _____ . There are many large animals that graze in grasslands such as elephants and buffalo.

What biome do you live in?

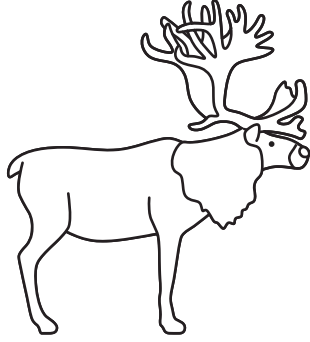

Cut & Paste

Instructions: Cut out and stick the animals and plants on the last page next to their correct biomes in the table.

	Animal	Plant
Forest biome
Desert biome
Aquatic biome
Tundra biome
Grassland biome

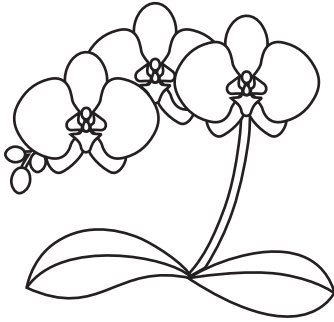

Caribou

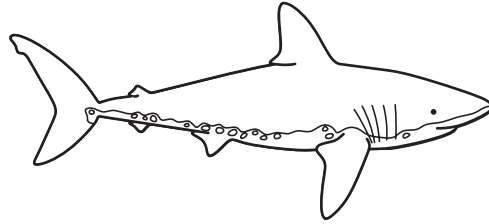

Acacia

Orchid

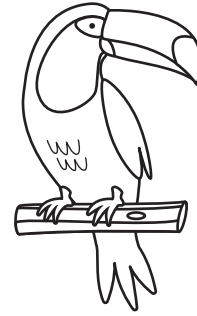

Shark

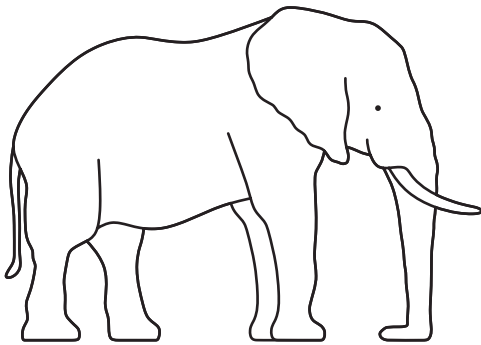

Arctic moss

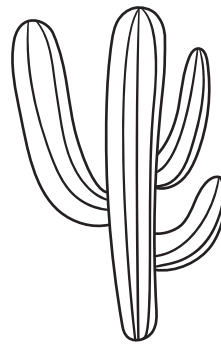

Toucan

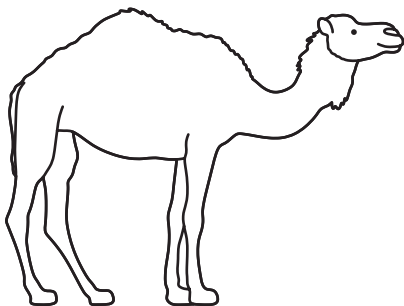

Elephant

Cactus

Camel

Seaweed

